

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DATE: November 5, 2015
POSITION TITLE: Judicial Law Clerk to Judge Alsup
LOCATION: San Francisco, California
CLASS LEVEL: JSP11/01 - JSP13/10
SALARY: $69,329 - $128,457 / Depending upon Experience and Qualifications
CLOSING DATE: Open until filled

Judge William Alsup is looking for a law clerk for his “civil/IP desk.” He divides his work between a “criminal” law clerk and a “civil” law clerk. The criminal law clerk handles all criminal and habeas assignments plus some civil case assignments. The civil law clerk handles all IP, and all other civil cases not assigned to the criminal law clerk.

We are looking for one law clerk with a passion for IP/patent law, starting from NOVEMBER 2016 THROUGH MAY 2018 (for eighteen months).

Judge Alsup is a “morning person” and so must be his law clerks. Applicants should know that due to the large caseload, the hours will be long with little or no vacation time. The reward will be invaluable experience, considerable responsibility and memories on a wide range of fascinating courtroom scenes. Also, must love dogs.

PLEASE SUBMIT RESUME, WRITING SAMPLE, REFERENCE LETTERS and LAW SCHOOL TRANSCRIPT to:

United States District Court
Attn: Katherine Young
450 Golden Gate Avenue
San Francisco, CA 94102

INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS: The successful candidate for this position is subject to a FBI fingerprint check and background investigation-employment will be provisional and contingent upon the satisfactory completion of the required background investigation, will be required to adhere to a code of conduct (which is available upon request), and is subject to mandatory direct deposit of federal wages. The court is not authorized to reimburse travel expenses for interviews or relocations.

Interviewing Non-Citizens and Making Offers of Future Employment: Non-citizens may be interviewed and considered for employment, but employment offers will only be made to individuals who qualify under one of the exceptions in 8 U.S.C. § 1324b(a)(3)(B). In most cases, this means that an offer of employment cannot be made unless the candidate is a lawful permanent resident who is seeking U.S. citizenship as explained below.

Under 8 U.S.C. §1324b (a)(3)(B), a lawful permanent resident seeking citizenship may not apply for citizenship until he or she has been a permanent resident for at least five years (three years if seeking naturalization as a spouse of a citizen), at which point he or she must apply for citizenship within six months of becoming eligible, and must complete the process within two years of applying (unless there is a delay caused by the processors of the application).

Where appropriate and necessary, the court provides reasonable accommodation to applicants with disabilities. If you need reasonable accommodation for any part of the application or hiring process, please notify the Human Resources Unit of the Clerk's Office at 415-522-2147. Determinations on requests for reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis.

Due to the volume of applications anticipated, the court will only communicate with those candidates selected for interview.
